Regulation of Johnny Raducanu
International Jazz Festival
Braila, Romania , the VIIIth edition
29th – 31st of October 2021

The organizers

Braila County Council, Braila County Center for Preservation and Promotion of Traditional Culture organize during the 29th – 31st of October 2021, the eighth edition of Johnny Raducanu International Jazz Festival.

The purpose of the Festival

The Festival is organized as homage to Johnny Raducanu, the illustrious Braila citizen, seeking to perpetuate his work and distinct artistic personality. His great love for the hometown, Braila, exceeded only by the love for music, his constant support offered to the young creators or jazz performers will be annually celebrated in this way also.

The Festival - contest is a yearly competitive event organised by Braila County Council, the Creation Center and aims at discovering and promoting new interpretive talents. On the entire festival's duration there will take place jazz recitals, an occasion for the young competitors and audience to come together with well-known performers of jazz music.

The Festival is divided in two sections: contest and recitals performed by great jazz artists.

Running the contest

The competition takes place on 29th, 30th and 31st of October 2021. On the 31st of October 2021, the Awarding Ceremony will take place.

Conditions-The contest's registration

In what concerns the registration in the competition, both Romanian and foreign citizens may participate, irrespective of sex and religion. There are expected contestants aged between 16 and 35 years, made until the date of the Awarding Gala (a valid requirement for each member of the bands too). The winners of the previous editions (the winner of the trophy's, Best instrumental performer, Best vocalist, Best band, The most promising young artist, The best composition) cannot participate in the contest.

Also, in the case that one contestant already participated in two consecutive editions of the festival, a third participation is not possible.

Upon the request of the Organizer, the Trophy's winner will sustain a micro-recital at the next edition of the Festival and will attend a workshop only if the parties agree to the terms and conditions of this workshop; travel expenses, accommodation and meals related to the support of the micro-recital by the winner of the previous Trophy will be borne by the Organizer.

The registration in the contest will be made on the basis of :
